

Headline: Teacher scammed out of RM216,000 by Language: English syndicate

Publication/Portal: New Straits Times

Section: News

Date: 2 January 2022

Page: 12

Teacher scammed out of RM216,000 by syndicate

TELUK INTAN: A primary school teacher, 48, was conned of RM216,000 by a Macau scam syndicate. Hilir Perak police chief Assistant Commissioner Ahmad Adnan Basri said the victim was contacted by a man who was allegedly an insurance company representative on Nov 10, to investigate an accident claim under her name. He said the call was connected to the Pudu police station and later a court representative who accused her of money laundering. "The victim made a personal loan at two banks, amounting to RM118,000 and RM59,000, and transferred the money to her account this (last) month on the suspect's orders. On Dec 1, she revealed her bank account details to a man who claimed to be from the High Court." Ahmad Adnan said the victim only realised she had been cheated after being informed by the bank that money from the personal loan and her savings had been transferred in stages. "The victim lodged a report on Thursday," he added. Bernama