Factory technician loses RM155,000 to Macau scam

BALIK PULAU: A factory technician here became RM155,402.50 poorer after she fell victim to a Macau scam syndicate. Southwest district police chief Superintendent A.A. Anbalagan said the victim received a call at her workplace on Jan 14 from a police-woman who told her that she had caused a fatal accident. The suspect asked for the victim's MyKad details. The call was then transferred to a man who said the victim's bank accounts would be frozen for investigation. "The male suspect asked the victim to open an account with Agro Bank and to transfer all of her Employees Provident Fund and Amanah Saham Bumiputera money into the account. On Monday, the victim went to the bank and found only RM115.20 in her account."
